Dissolution defeated in Victory

IN THIS ARTICLE

Mar 20, 2013

Voters in the Saratoga County village of Victory rejected an effort to dissolve the municipality by a vote of 143 to 82, according to a report by the Post-Star of Glens Falls.

The village would have dissolved into the town of Saratoga.

Victory, which operates on a $527,000 budget and has a population of 605, is among the smallest villages in New York State.
