

70°

62°

72°

Search Site

It was a big night for income tax levies in Jefferson County

by Jessica Haberley
Tuesday, March 15th 2016

Mingo Junction levy.JPG

JEFFERSON COUNTY, Ohio — Voters in Jefferson County supported several income tax levies on Tuesday night during the Ohio primary.

assessed 2,936 for

70°

62°

72°

And there was a 2 percent income tax that passed 2,772-1,600.

Search Site

These two tax levies mean there are going to be payments for safety services, street maintenance funds, and also parks and rec funds for the people of Steubenville.

Sponsored Links

NerdWallet's 2022 Travel Card Picks Are Here. See the List.

NerdWallet

Learn More

Mingo Junction had a 1 percent income tax levy passed with ease, as there were 705 for votes and 331 against. It has passed every year since 1992.

The Wells Township Parks and Recreation levy passed 524-294. There was just a three-vote difference the last time it was voted upon.

And finally, the majority was against the Smithfield village dissolution, with 128 no votes and 94 yes votes.

All results are unofficial. Jefferson County will certify its results on March 31.

MORE TO EXPLORE

New England Patriots owner, 80, engaged to girlfriend, 47

Search Site

Steubenville NAACP investigating claims of incident at Steubenville McDonald's

SPONSORED CONTENT

by Taboola

NerdWallet’s 2022 Travel Card Picks Are Here. See the List.

NerdWallet | SPONSORED

Learn More

Important Signs of Hemophilia: Many May Wish They Caught Them Sooner

Hemophilia | Search Ads | SPONSORED

Fastest High School Sprinters of All Time

Stadium Talk | SPONSORED

ADVERTISEMENT

Thomson Reuters®
Fraud Solutions >

Loading ...