Proposal to dissolve Fleischmanns fails

Staff Report

Dec 22, 2019

The Village of Fleischmanns will remain intact after a referendum to dissolve was voted down Friday.

“The village is going to stay whole,” said Village Mayor Fred Woller, who said he was “absolutely elated” by the outcome.

In the final tally, 46 taxpayers voted in favor of the proposition and 70 were against it, Woller said. “It was a pretty good margin,” he said. “Twenty-four votes is a small election — it makes a huge difference.”

The Fleischmanns Village Board scheduled the referendum after a petition with 28 valid signatures was submitted Sept. 7, according to Woller. If the referendum passed, the village would have disincorporated and become a hamlet of the town of Middletown, joining Arkville, Halcottsville and New Kingston.
