

Altmar residents vote 80-74 to dissolve village

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2010

ALTMAR — By a narrow vote of 80-74, residents of the village of Altmar in Oswego County voted to abolish village government.

ARTICLE OPTIONS

The 134-year-old village has about 350 residents, and those in favor of the dissolution said it could help lower taxes.

The village Board of Trustees will look into what must be done with village property such as the fire department and village services such as cemeteries, street lighting and sidewalk repair.

SHOW COMMENTS